FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Possession Of Child Pornography in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(5)(B), (b)(2) as charged in the Single-Count Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Felipe Marquez-Lara, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 41 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of life under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person;
3. The defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
4. The defendant shall register as a sex offender, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where he resides, where he is an employee, and where he is a student, to the extent the registration procedures have been established in each jurisdiction. When registering for the first time, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred if different from his jurisdiction of residence. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within three days of release from imprisonment;

5. The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs), which have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices are personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers;
6. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment used by the defendant shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at the defendant's employment site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer;
7. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program. The defendant shall pay the cost of the Computer Monitoring Program, in an amount not to exceed $32 per month per device connected to the internet;
8. The defendant shall participate in a psychological counseling or psychiatric treatment or a sex offender treatment program, as approved and directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of such program. The Probation Officer shall disclose the presentence report and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the treatment provider;
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychological and/or psychiatric disorder(s) to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment, as directed by the Probation Officer;
10. The defendant shall not view or possess any material, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games, depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct," as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2);
11. The defendant shall not view or possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games depicting and/or describing child pornography, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8). This condition does not prohibit the defendant from possessing materials solely because they are necessary to, and used for, a collateral attack. Nor does it prohibit him from possessing materials prepared and used for the purpose of his Court-mandated sex offender treatment, when the defendant's treatment provider for the probation officer has approved of his possession of the material in advance;
12. The defendant shall not own, use, or have access to the services of any commercial mail-receiving agency, nor shall he open or maintain a post office box, without the prior approval of the Probation Officer;
13. The defendant shall not frequent or loiter within 100 feet of school yards, parks, public swimming pools, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or any other places primarily used by persons under the age of 18, unless the defendant receives written permission from the Probation Officer;

14. The defendant shall not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic, or electronic communication with any person under the age of 18, except: (a) in the presence of the parent or legal guardian of said minor; and (b) the condition that the defendant notify said parent or legal guardian of his conviction in the instant offense. This provision does not encompass persons under the age 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, and similar persons with whom the defendant must deal with in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services;
15. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer or be employed in any capacity by a business or organization that causes him to regularly contact persons under the age of 18
16. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own control, volunteer or be employed in any capacity by a business or organization whose principal product is the production and/or selling of materials depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct," as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2);
17. The defendant's employment shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in employment must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the name and address of the proposed employer to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change;
18. The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and his effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or Probation Officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, and by any Probation Officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions; and
19. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office, located at the United States Court House, 411 W. Fourth Street, Suite 4170, Santa Ana, CA 92701-4516.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

Defendant advised of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
